

Special Care in Dentistry 2006 Subscription Rate Sheet

Title: Special Care in Dentistry (ISSN: 0275-1879)

Publisher: Special Care Dentistry is the official Journal of the American Association of Hospital Dentists, the Academy of Dentistry for Persons with Disabilities and the American Society for Geriatric Dentistry

Description: Special Care in Dentistry is the only journal that addresses the needs of the special patient. In Special Care in Dentistry, you will find articles by leading authorities in geriatrics, hospital dentistry and those who treat persons with disabilities. Articles include subjects such as treatment of patients who are older than 65, homebound, have a disability or multiple medical problems, or in general require special management in the dental office. Articles describe new treatment settings, homebound/portable dentistry, access programs, education and more efficient methods of treating the special patient. Special patients are in every practice; oral health professionals who strive to care for their patients in a more knowledgeable manner need to read Special Care in Dentistry.
